Tips for applicants

Before you apply

Before starting your application, consider why this course is important for Fiji's development. All applicants are expected to have clear ideas about how they will use the knowledge and skills gained through this course to contribute to Fiji's development needs.

If you are a civil servant, you are strongly encouraged to seek prior approval from your respective Permanent Secretary before applying for the scholarship, in accordance with the Civil Service's Learning and Development guidelines.

Frequently Asked Questions

How will my application be assessed?

Selection is made on merit and in competition.

Only complete and eligible applications will be assessed by independent assessment specialists using the Australia Awards global criteria of academic merit, leadership skills, and future potential to contribute to Fiji.

The strongest applicants will be shortlisted and invited to attend an interview.

Incomplete applications will not be assessed.

What is the course duration?

The duration varies depending on the course content.

The minimum course duration for both Undergraduate and Postgraduate studies is 1 year.

The maximum duration permitted under the scholarship for Bachelor level study is 4 years.

Can I delay starting the scholarship and commence studies the following year?

If you are successful in being awarded a scholarship, you must commence study in the 2027 academic year.

Can I apply if I have a disability?

Yes! People with disabilities who meet the scholarship eligibility requirements are encouraged to apply for a scholarship. A person will not be disadvantaged by declaring their disability. Reasonable adjustments and accommodations will be made to remove barriers for persons with disability. All applicants must meet the eligibility requirements for the scholarship and submit a compliant application.

If I am successful in my scholarship application and I become pregnant, will I lose the scholarship opportunity?

Pregnant applicants are encouraged to share this information with the Australia Awards office at their earliest opportunity, so planning can be undertaken about the best time to commence studies. Awardees will be assessed equally. Pregnant applicants will not be disadvantaged.

How do I certify my documents?

Proof of citizenship and academic documents must be certified copies. Certification can be undertaken by the Issuing Institution, a Justice of the Peace or a registered legal counsel.

Can I apply to study in Australia instead of Fiji?

This scholarship is called Australia Awards Pacific Scholarships (AAPS) and supports recipients to study in the Pacific, including Fiji.

There is a similar scholarship program called Australia Awards Scholarships (AAS), which supports recipients to study in Australia. Please refer to the Australia Awards Scholarships materials for more information.
